CDTC Program Flowchart

Arrest/Charge

Does the accused fit general referral criteria? → No → Regular Criminal Proceedings

Yes

Police Officer &/or Defence/Duty/Private Counsel Flags the File

Crown completes 'Crown Screening Form' to determine fit with Crown eligibility criteria → Not Eligible →

Eligible

Accused observes a session in CDTC (Thursday) & receives information about the CDTC (Judge's comments and App. Package) → Refusal to Continue with the Application Process →

Accused wishes to continue with the application process

Defence/Duty Counsel complete with the accused the Application form & provides same to Crown	Accused signs Waiver I & provides same to Crown	If in custody, accused agrees to postpone Bail Application until app. process complete

→ Refusal to Sign Waiver Part I or Postpone Bail →

The Accused (with CDTC rep) completes the Treatment Pre-Screening Form → Not Eligible for Treatment →

Eligible for Treatment

The Accused (with the treatment representative) completes the treatment Intake and other treatment assessment forms → Not Eligible for Treatment →

Court Team reviews all of the documentation completed to-date to determine acceptance into the program (Pre-Court weekly meetings) → Not Accepted into CDTC →

Accepted into CDTC

Guilty Plea; Signing of Waiver II; Judge Conducts Bail Hearing for Release Conditions While in Program (Thursday) → Refusal to Plead Guilty or to Sign Waiver II or to Enter Into Bail Order →

Participation in CDTC Program – 3 Stages over a period of up to 2 years, including:

Weekly CDTC Court Appearances

Random Drug Testing

Compliance with Treatment Expectations

Client opts out of program within 30 days of entering the Guilty Plea → Guilty Plea Struck, Bail Revoked →

Sanctions Imposed

Fail to Attend at CDTC or Treatment; or

Fail to Comply with the Bail Conditions; or

Failed Drug Test

→ Re Assessment by CDTC Team of Participation in Program → Expelled from Program →

Graduation (incl. Sentencing)
Crown will recommend a non-custodial sentence